Click the blue “Publish” button, as shown in the image:

Click on the “OK” button in the dialog box that appears after clicking on publish button. A link will be generated, your spreadsheet will be published and you can utilize this URL to embed it in your WordPress Site.

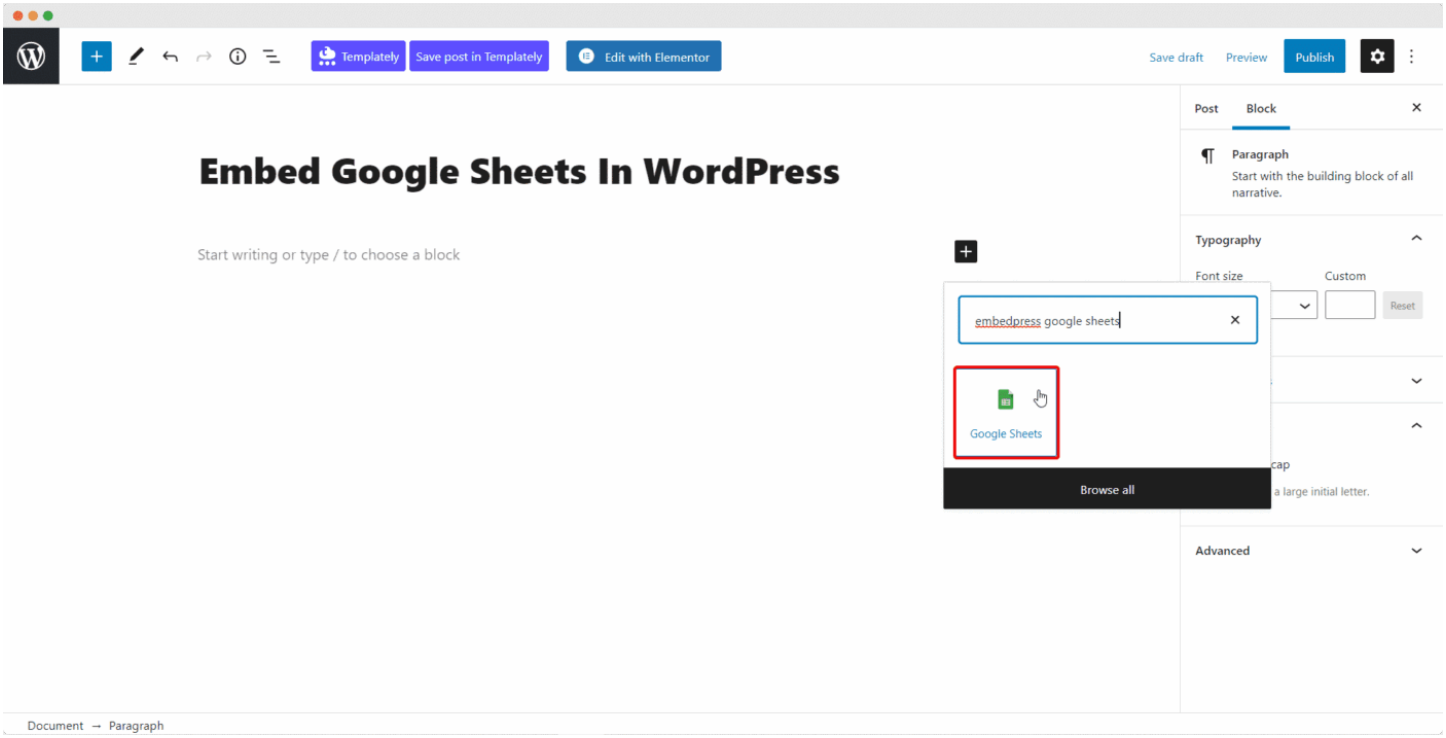

Before you go any further, let's check that your URL can be embedded on other sites:

Your URL should end in /pubhtml. Paste the URL into a different browser where you aren't logged into Google. Can you still see the spreadsheet? If you can't, then the spreadsheet hasn't been correctly published to the web. Read the full documentation here.

Step 2: Embed Google Sheets In Gutenberg

Now you have the Google Sheet URL, you can add it to WordPress.

Go to your WordPress site. Edit a post or page & Click the '+' icon in the editing area. Then search for the "EmbedPress" block and select it. First, enter the URL for your Google Sheets. Click the "Embed" button and you'll now see your Google Sheets embedded instantly.

Step  3: Edit Your Google Sheets Embed

You can also edit your embedded content seamlessly using EmbedPress. Click on your embed and then click on the ‘Pencil’ icon as shown below.

Final Outcome:

Now publish your WordPress page or post. Google Sheets will be embedded for users to see, as shown in the image:
